Dear Mr. Weisburg:

Just a few lines to let you know I have read all your books and that I find them to be extremely enlightening & interesting. I am looking forward to your new book. I wonder if it would be possible to buy an autographed copy from you?

I believe we have a mutual friend in Penn Jones. I have visited him on several occasions, the last being over the Labor Day weekend. He is quite a guy! I've written an article on him entitled "The Fighting Editor of Midlothian" which I hope is printed in The A. T. Freshman in the near future. I've also written an article "The Pre-Assassination Atmosphere; Was It Made to Order?" This is in their hands now.

Am enclosing a few stickers which I recently had printed. Hope you like them.

Sincerely
Don Blaine

Dear Mr. Bainne,

You cannot speak or write too highly of Penn!

Saw your letter in his paper. The Washington "Post" carried the one you wrote them Sunday or yesterday.

My books, published to date, are : WHITEWASH, WHITEWASH II. PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH, and OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS. I have three other manuscripts not yet published and a number of others in various states of incompleteness.

Thanks for the stickers. What I do not use myself I'll get mounted!

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
